

Welcome to Valencia

Valencia can be a city of clichés: the light, the moon, the gun-powder, the paella, the flowers, the fallas... they are keys which attempt to explain what words cannot tell.

It is necessary to visit and get to know Valencia to verify that centenary traditions live together with modernity; that sea and city are compatible; that the green colour of farms can be kept together with a modern urban scheme; that Valencia is unique at night and during the day.

Spanish Delicatessen

Day 01 – Tapas Tour

This is the best way of getting to know Valencia's old quarter in a laidback fashion in unison with the local lifestyle and tasting delicious Mediterranean cuisine.

Tapas and “ir de tapas” (going out for tapas snacks and drinks) is very much a custom of Spain – the idea of tasting a variety of different tapas washed down with some good wine and enjoying good conversation.

The tour involves strolling down various streets and squares as well as, seeing some of the major monuments in Valencia's old quarter. We'll stop at a selection of the most popular bars and restaurants; some are quite traditional while others are quite avant-garde.

From The Past To The Future

Day 01 – Highlight of Valencia Tour - Option 1

In a few short hours you will enjoy the most important monuments of this beautiful city, a real mix of ancient and sophistication.

The city hall, including the old Casa Ensenanza, an 18th-century building and the new 20th-century, La Lonja, the city's Commodity Exchange and Maritime Consulate, are just a few examples of our dive into Valencia's wonders

Of course, we could not forget the modernist part of town, a must see buildings that belongs to the city's patrimony.

Health & Culture

Day 01 - Cycling Tour - Option 2

This pleasant and active cycling visit focuses on the most modern part of the city as we take in the stunning exteriors of buildings at the science and culture complex known as Ciudad de las Artes y de las Ciencias: The Opera House, Hemisferic, Umbracle, Museo de Ciencias (Science Museum).

Astonishing visit to the opera house known as Palau de les Arts include. The Bike tour is conducted through parks and gardens and along bike paths and pedestrian streets making it a safe and easy option.

In a Magic Place

Day 01 – Submarino Restaurant

After unveiling Valencia we suggest having dinner at the Oceanographic, with its spectacular architecture, was designed by Félix Candela.

The restaurant is divided into two floors. The upper floor is arranged as a central island surrounded by park lake. This spacious ring known for its spectacular lamp, which, like a lily, illuminates the most special evenings, making your dinning experience simply unforgettable.

Regarding the lower floor of the restaurant is surrounded by a stunning aquarium inhabited by banks silver fish, which allows you to find a harmony between nature and gastronomy.

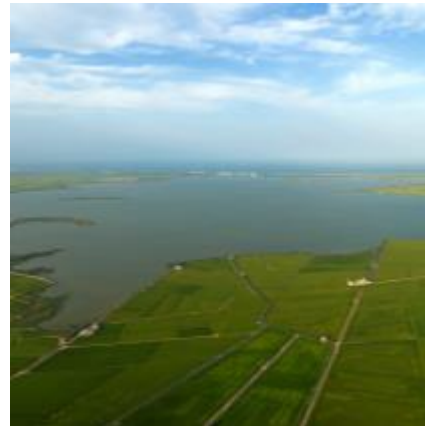

Valencia & Natural beauties

Day 02 - Albufera Park Activity

We will start our visit to the magnificent Museo Fallero. It houses the collection of Ninots, the satirical images of people and events burned every year during the Fallas festival which is the most important cultural activity in town

But the aim of this visit is the nature park known as Parque Natural de la Albufera which is only 15 km South of Valencia.

Panoramic drive on board the bus to La Albufera passing by the woods of La Dehesa and the rice fields. We arrive at the village of El Palmar, where we board our boats for our cruise on the placid lake (45 min approx.) and visit a barraca.

Chic and Charming

Day 02 – Contrapunto Restaurant

After appreciating the beauty of Albufera Park we shall have lunch at contrapunto. The design is a collaboration of interior design studio JanfriDesign with GGLAB. The interior space is organized around a dominating micro architecture and articulates the room.

It is a structure-sculpture built by braces natural wood, with a dual function, generate a spatial continuity between the exterior and interior of the restaurant as well as acoustically condition the Salo del Turia.

Along Valencia's Countryside

Day 02 - Cabrio Tour

For the afternoon enjoy a fabulous ride in convertible cars along the countryside of Valencia and Castellon Provinces.

We could prepare the tour as a Gymkhana - competition in teams or just as a relaxing tour to discover the interior landscapes and the flavors of the Valencian Region. You name it!

By The Beach

Day 02 – El Coso del Mar

For tonight's dinner El Coso is the perfect option. Set just off Las Arenas beach, on a privileged location in Valencia's 21st century expansion, beside the Veles e Vents building.

El Coso blends the most contemporary design elements with colonial style. You can enjoy the local specialty paella or other Mediterranean dishes in the two restaurants available at El Coso del Mar.

Sport & Fun

Day 03 – Regatta Sail Activity

Start the morning by sailing on aboard of Regatta boats. Throughout this activity members of the group shall take an active part inside the boats trimming the sails, helming the boats and so on.

According to the number of people we make different groups to create the crews in the boats available to sail in the races. With the help of a professional skipper they compete between teams using a windward-leeward race course.

Summer Dream

Day 03 – La Duna

For lunch we suggest a unique space, with a salty flavor and Mediterranean aroma, in La Albufera Natural Park. Surrounded by dunes and located next to the sea shore, is the perfect place to enjoy Valencia's best rice and high quality market cuisine.

Since 2002, Arrocería Duna has been evolving at business, gastronomical and aesthetic levels, with the sea as a constant and, as goal, satisfying its clients.

For the rest of the day, leisure time will be assigned.

Dinner with Flamenco

Day 03 – Dinner at La Buleria

For our last night in Valencia we suggest a unique dinner combining Flamenco dancing and Spanish gastronomy.

La Bulería intends to reach diverse audiences by the magic and charm of ancestral flamenco. They look for the authenticity respecting a universal art that has become one of the most praised cultural icons, both inside and outside our country.

The tablao Bulería answered a new concept, which emphasizes aesthetics of modern flamenco but renovated. All a world of sensations preceded by a careful choice of cuisine based on the best products of traditional Spanish cuisine.
